

TOPIC:

“Skillful Acupuncture”

Acupuncture is widely practiced in America. We all know that acupuncture can get excellent clinical results; but how to achieve that? How to make our needle technique better and more effective? Do we still practice traditional Chinese acupuncture techniques? What are the ancient acupuncture needle techniques? Dr. Yuan Wang will review in detail, as well as demonstrate, the most effective methods and ‘skillful techniques’, ancient and modern.

This course will be of great value to help practitioners to improve their needle techniques including needle selection, needle insertion angles, direction and depth, “de qi” method, difficult points, and needle combinations.

WHO ARE WE???

We are California State Licensed Acupuncturists, just like you! We seek to support our Acupuncture Profession by providing minimal cost, local, and high quality Continuing Education seminars for San Diego-based Acupuncturists.

We are currently affiliated with a respected Acupuncture Association, the “California Alliance of Acupuncture Medicine”, or “CAAM”. We chose to affiliate with CAAM because it is a politically active and ethical non-profit Acupuncture Association; and “many chopsticks together can’t be broken,” as the saying goes. Our San Diego association operates autonomously as a “Chapter” of this Alliance.
